How To Tip

To play in the classic component of the NRL Tipping competition:

- Put in your Tips at any point up until the beginning of the game.
- Enter what you think will be the margin for the featured game of the week.
- If you forget to Tip you will automatically be allocated the Away Teams for your Tips to a maximum of 4 correct tips per Round (i.e. the maximum points you can score if no-tip away winners are included is 4).
- Tipping results are available immediately after the completion of each Match.

An Eligible Entrant may make or change a Tip for a given Match in a Round at any time prior to the scheduled starting time of that Match.

Eligible Entrants will be allocated points based on their Tips ("Score").

- One (1) point will be allocated for each correct winning team selection.
- Zero (0) points will be allocated for each incorrect team selection
- In the event of a Match drawn, cancelled, abandoned, not completed or not played for any reason and/or a result not officially declared within three (3) days of the date the Match was originally scheduled to be played, it is treated as a win for both teams competing in that Match.
- Bonus two (2) points for tipping all winners correctly in any given round where 8 games or more are played. Therefore, there will be no bonus points awarded in round 13 or 17. The bonus is not awarded to entrants who did not submit one or more tips and were awarded the away teams by default for any matches in the round.

- If an Eligible Entrant:

- Does not submit a Tip for a given Match in a Round, then the Eligible Entrant's Tip for that Match will be deemed to be for the away team;
- Enters the Promotion after the commencement of the first Round, then the Eligible Entrant's Tips for those Rounds that have been completed will be deemed to be for the away teams, with a maximum of 4 points per Round;
- Does not enter a Margin for a Margin Match, then the Eligible Entrant's Margin will be the average Margin of all the Margins submitted by Eligible Entrant's in that Round.

Margins are taken into account when two or more Eligible Entrants have the same Score. The number of points between an Eligible Entrant's Margin prediction and the actual Margin for a Match will form the basis of the Eligible Entrant's Margin Score. The Margin Score will accumulate each week.

Eligible Entrants will be ranked on a leaderboard on the Website. Rankings will appear by Score for the previous Round ("Round Ranking"), and the overall Score for the Game to date ("Overall Ranking") as set out below. These rankings are an indication of ranking for all participants in the Game (including persons who participate in the Game who are not Eligible Entrants).

Prize Details

- After Round 25, all points will be calculated and the person(s) with the most points will be declared the winner(s). This is followed by a second place & third place.
